I am pleased to deliver the finalized Software Requirements Specification (SRS) document for the Event Management System, which is attached. This document formally details all functional and non-functional requirements and will serve as the foundational agreement for the entire development phase.

Next Steps & Sign-Off:

Please review the attached SRS. We require your confirmation that the documented requirements accurately reflect your expectations.

Kindly provide any feedback or formal sign-off by [Suggested Date: e.g., Friday, November 7, 2025]. Once approved, we will immediately proceed into the design and development sprints.

Thank you for your collaboration. Please reach out if you have any questions.

Best Regards,

Vishal Chandravanshi
